Fair Processing Statement

What happens to information held about you? Your rights and our obligations to you.

How We Use Personal Data

Introduction

This document explains how Northamptonshire Police obtains, holds, uses and discloses information about people (their personal data), the steps we take to ensure that it is protected, and also describes the rights individuals have in regard to their personal data handled by Northamptonshire Police.

The use and disclosure of personal data is governed in the United Kingdom by the Data Protection Act 1998 ('the Act'). The Chief Constable of Northamptonshire Police is registered with the Information Commissioner as a 'data controller' for the purposes of the Act (see link). As such he is obliged to ensure that Northamptonshire Police handles all personal data in accordance with the Act.

Northamptonshire Police takes that responsibility very seriously and takes great care to ensure that personal data is handled appropriately in order to secure and maintain individuals' trust and confidence in the force.

1. Why do we handle personal data?

Northamptonshire Police obtains, holds, uses and discloses personal data for two broad purposes:

1. The Policing Purpose – which includes protecting life and property, preserving order, preventing the commission of offences, bringing offenders to justice, and any duty or responsibility of the police arising from common or statute law.

2. The provision of services to support the Policing Purpose – which include:

- Staff administration, occupational health and welfare;
- Management of public relations, journalism, advertising and media;
- Management of finance;
- Internal review, accounting and auditing;
- Training;
- Property management;

Northamptonshire Police may also obtain personal data from other sources such as its own CCTV systems, or correspondence.

5. How do we handle personal data?

In order to achieve the purposes described under section 1 Northamptonshire Police will handle personal data in accordance with the Act. In particular we will ensure that personal data is handled fairly and lawfully with appropriate justification. We will strive to ensure that any personal data used by us or on our behalf is of the highest quality in terms of accuracy, relevance, adequacy and non-excessiveness, is kept as up to date as required, is protected appropriately, and is reviewed, retained and securely destroyed when no longer required. We will also respect individuals' rights under the Act (see section 8 below).

6. How do we ensure the security of personal data?

Northamptonshire Police Fair Processing Statement

Northamptonshire Police takes the security of all personal data under our control very seriously. We will comply with the relevant parts of the Act relating to security, and seek to comply with the National Police Chiefs' Council Community Security Policy. We will ensure that appropriate policy, training, technical and procedural measures are in place, including audit and integrity monitoring, to protect our manual and electronic information systems from data loss and misuse, and only permit access to them when there is a legitimate reason to do so, and then under strict guidelines as to what use may be made of any personal data contained within them. These procedures are continuously managed and enhanced to ensure up-to-date security.

7. Who do we disclose personal data to?

In order to carry out the purposes described under section 1 above Northamptonshire Police may disclose personal data to a wide variety of recipients in any part of the world, including those from whom personal data is obtained (as listed above). This may include disclosures to other law enforcement agencies, partner agencies working on crime reduction initiatives, partners in the Criminal Justice arena, Victim Support, and to bodies or individuals working on our behalf such as IT contractors or survey organisations. We may also disclose to other bodies or individuals where necessary to prevent harm to individuals. Disclosures of personal data will be made on a case-by-case basis, using the personal data appropriate to a specific purpose and circumstances, and with necessary controls in place. Some of the bodies or individuals to which we may disclose personal data are situated outside of the European Union - some of which do not have laws that protect data protection rights as extensively as in the United Kingdom. If we do transfer personal data to such territories, we will take proper steps to ensure that it is adequately protected as required by the Act.

Northamptonshire Police will also disclose personal data to other bodies or individuals when required to do so by, or under, any act of legislation, by any rule of law, and by court order. This may include disclosures to the Child Support Agency, the National Fraud Initiative, the Home Office and to the Courts. Northamptonshire Police may also disclose personal data on a discretionary basis for the purpose of, and in connection with, any legal proceedings or for obtaining legal advice.

8. What are the rights of the individuals whose personal data is handled by Northamptonshire Police?

Individuals have various rights enshrined in the Act:

Subject Access

The most commonly exercised right is that used by individuals to obtain a copy, subject to exemptions, of their personal data processed by Northamptonshire Police. Details of the application process, known as 'Subject Access' can be downloaded from:

Northamptonshire Police Fair Processing Statement

<http://www.northants.police.uk/page/data-protection-subject-access>

Alternatively individuals may contact the Northamptonshire Police Information Unit (see section 11 below).

Right to prevent processing likely to cause damage or distress

Under Section 10 of the Act an individual is entitled, in limited circumstances, to write to Northamptonshire Police requiring that we do not handle their personal data in a manner that was causing or would be likely to cause unwarranted substantial damage or substantial distress to themselves or another person. Requests under Section 10 must describe the personal data involved; describe the handling to which the individual objects; state that the handling was causing or would be likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to him/her or another; describe the damage or distress; state that the damage or distress was/would be unwarranted; and give reasons why the handling was causing/would cause such distress and was/would be unwarranted.

All requests of this nature may be sent in writing to the Northamptonshire Police Information Unit (see section 11 below). It is worth noting that the Act includes certain provisions which may mean in a particular case Northamptonshire Police can continue to handle the personal data as intended despite the objection.

Right to Prevent Processing for the Purposes of Direct Marketing

Although Northamptonshire Police does not engage in direct-marketing, under Section 11 of the Act and subject to certain exemptions, an individual has the right to request in writing that Northamptonshire Police stops within a reasonable time, or does not start, using their personal data for direct marketing purposes. This includes the communication by any means (e.g. mail, email, telephone, door-to-door canvassing) of any advertising or marketing material directed at particular individuals.

Any requests under Section 11 may be sent to the Northamptonshire Police Information Unit (see section 11 below).

Rights in relation to automated decision-taking

Although Northamptonshire Police is unlikely to carry out any automated decision-taking that does not involve some human element, under Section 12 of the Act and subject to certain exemptions, an individual has the right to require that Northamptonshire Police ensures that no decision that would significantly affect them is taken by Northamptonshire Police or on its behalf purely using automated decision-making software. The right has to be exercised in writing. If there is a human element involved in the decision-making the right does not apply. Requests under Section 11 may be sent to the Northamptonshire Police Information Unit (see section 11 below).

Northamptonshire Police Fair Processing Statement

Right to take action for compensation if the individual suffers damage by any contravention of the Act by data controllers

Under Section 13 of the Act any individual who believes they have suffered damage and/or distress as a result of any contravention of the requirements of the Act may be entitled to compensation from Northamptonshire Police where the force is unable to prove that it had taken such care as was reasonable in all the circumstances to comply with the relevant requirement. Any claim for compensation arising from this provision may be sent to the Northamptonshire Police, Wootton Hall, Northampton NN4 0JQ

Right to take action to rectify, block, erase or destroy inaccurate data

Under Section 14 of the Act an individual has the right to seek a court order for the rectification, blocking, erasure or destruction of their inaccurate personal data handled by Northamptonshire Police. The right cannot be exercised directly to Northamptonshire Police.

Right to request the Information Commissioner to assess a data controller's Processing

Under Section 42 of the Act any person can request the Information Commissioner to make an assessment if they believe that they are/have been adversely affected by the handling of personal data by Northamptonshire Police. Such requests should be made direct to the Information Commissioner whose contact details can be found below.

Generally if individuals have any concerns regarding the way their personal data is handled by Northamptonshire Police or the quality (accuracy, relevance, non-excessiveness etc.) of their personal data they are encouraged to raise them with the Northamptonshire Police Information Unit (see section 11 below).

The Information Commissioner is the independent regulator responsible for enforcing the Act and can provide useful information about the Act's requirements. The Information Commissioner's Office may be contacted using the following:

9. How long does Northamptonshire Police retain personal data?

Northamptonshire Police Fair Processing Statement

Northamptonshire Police keeps personal data as long as is necessary for the particular purpose or purposes for which it is held. Personal data which is placed on national police systems namely, the Police National Computer, National DNA Database or National Fingerprint Database are managed in accordance with 'NPCC Deletion of Records from National Police Systems \(PNC/NDNAD/IDENT1\)'. Other records containing personal data relating to crime recording, domestic violence, child abuse investigation, public protection, missing persons, case and custody, incident records, firearms licensing and intelligence will be retained in accordance with the Authorised Professional Practice on the Management of Police Information. This can also be found on the College of Policing website at <http://www.app.college.police.uk/app-content/information-management/management-of-police-information/>

10. Monitoring

Northamptonshire Police may monitor or record and retain telephone calls, text, emails and other electronic communications to and from the force in order to deter, prevent and detect inappropriate or criminal activity, to ensure security, and to assist the purpose described under section 1 above. Northamptonshire Police does not place a pre-recorded 'fair processing notice' on telephone lines that may receive emergency calls (including misdirected ones) because of the associated risk of harm that may be caused through the delay in response to the call.
