Please read the following information carefully before completing the application

This guidance is for the use and completion of requests for information held by Northamptonshire Police i.e. 'locally held' personal information only.

This request form is not for use for the following purposes;

1. Applying only for data held on the Police National Computer (PNC).
2. Applying only for a police certificate for the visa or emigration purposes for specific countries.

For guidance and application forms for these purposes please refer to the information on the ACRO website https://www.acro.police.uk/

If you require a disclosure for employment purposes, and you live in England, Scotland or Wales, please contact the following for assistance:

Scotland: Disclosure Scotland www.mygov.scot/disclosure-types/

Certain employers and organisations such as recruitment agencies may attempt to exploit the subject access process by requiring individuals to use it to obtain a copy of their criminal convictions (or evidence that there is nothing held) as part of recruitment or continuing employment processes.

This practice is known as enforced subject access as covered by Section 177 of the Data Protection Act 2018. It is a criminal offence for a current or prospective employer or recruitment agency to require an individual to make a subject access request as a condition of employment or for the provision of goods or services. They should instead be using the existing formal criminal records check arrangements operated by the Disclosure and Barring Service, Disclosure Scotland or Access Northern Ireland.

Your Subject Access rights (to ‘locally held’ information)

You have a right to be told whether any information is held about you and a right to a copy of that information, unless certain exemptions apply. This will be returned 1 calendar month after receipt of a fully completed form and proof of identity.

You will be provided with that information only if you have provided satisfactory proof of your identity. Information may not have to be provided if someone else can be identified in or from the information. If you think that information might be held about you that may identify or have been provided by another person, you may want to get that person's written agreement to enable the information to be given to you. In addition to their consent, they will also need to provide two proofs of identity.

The legislation allows us to extend the period of compliance by a further two months where requests are complex or numerous. If this is the case, we will inform you within one month of receipt of your request and explain why the extension is necessary.

Chief Constable’s rights

The provisions of the Data Protection Act mean that in certain circumstances some personal data will not be provided. For example you will not be provided with personal data if releasing it to you would be likely to prejudice a criminal investigation, and we may not provide you with information.
